UPC LITIGATION FORUM 2024 MONDAY 22ND JANUARY 2024

09:00 Registration and Networking Breakfast

10:00 Chairs' Welcome and Opening Introduction

10:10 The Value of Patents from Different European Industries: Benchmark and Build a Commercial IP Strategy for the UPC

Now is an important time to learn from different industries and understand the possible different IP strategies considered by in-house IP professionals. This exclusive cross-industry panel will assess value from of IP from different industries and help you understand the scope of patent litigation possibilities at the UPC.

- Compare and contrast key perspectives from the mechanical engineering, electrical engineering, medical device, chemistry and pharma sectors:
 - How long is a patent valuable in each respective sector?
- Identify the impact of patents from a cross-industry perspective and build a commercial litigation strategy.
- How do different sectors approach the opportunity to validate a patent with a unitary effect?
- Discuss the state of patent quality at the UPC and EPO from a cross-industry perspective.

11:10 UPC Case Law Review: What is Your European Litigation Strategy?

Learn from in-house counsels and private practice experts on how the first legal cases at the UPC will be shape strategies, decision making and the legal landscape.

- What are the real lessons learned from the early experience at the UPC?
- What is the availability of preliminary injunctions under the new UPC system?
- How have seizure proceedings been treated by the UPC panel of judges?
- What is the standard for FRAND and telecommunications patent litigation in Europe?
- Understand how the judges have decided upon patentability questions at the UPC:
 - Have judges been influenced by EPO case law? National case law? The written decision?

14:30 UPC Mock Trial: A Practical Understanding of the Changes to Litigation Practice in Europe

With the UPC being a relatively young court system, a mock trial is the most practical and interactive way to understand the new procedural changes to patent litigation practices. This exclusive panel of regulators and patent litigators will highlight some core questions regarding UPC litigation and will demonstrate the patterns exhibited by the early stages at the UPC. By doing this, you will have a practical session to update your UPC litigation approach.
